for Navigating from the Denver International Airport to the Sheraton Denver Downtown

Inside the airport:

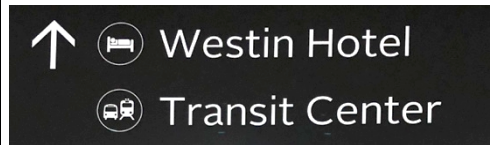

Take the short train ride from the terminal to the main baggage claim.

Follow the signs to the Westin Hotel and Transit Center.

Go outside and down the long escalator to the light rail.

Get a Full Fare ticket (to all stations). It will cost $9. Board the "University of Colorado A Line" to Union Station. This is an easy train to navigate - it starts at the airport and ends at Union Station, where you depart.

Trains run every 15 minutes.

At Union Station:

Exit the train and walk straight into Union Station.

Once inside, walk straight through and exit the opposite side from where you came in.

After exiting Union Station, turn right and walk by the outdoor fountain.

Walk to the end of the block, cross the street, and catch the free MallRide in front of the Office Depot.

Buses come by every minute or two.

Take the MallRide to Court Street, and you will arrive at the Sheraton.
